CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 27-10-2016

Despite more than six months having elapsed since this Court permitted filing of substitution petition in respect of the petitioner who is said to have died, the same has not yet been filed.

2. This Court is not inclined to keep the matter pending, considering that the heirs of the deceased petitioner do not appear to be taking interest in prosecuting the matter.

3. The writ petition accordingly stands dismissed. It is made clear however that the judgment shall not stand in the way of any representation being filed before the respondents for appropriate relief.
