2 19-05-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Khusrupur P.S. Case No.168 of 2015, disclosing offences under Sections 363 and 366(A) of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the petitioner, has straightway taken me to an order, dated 12.02.2016, passed in Cr. Misc. No.4912 of 2016, whereby, co-accused, namely, Anand Kumar, has been granted regular bail.

According to the prosecution case, said Anand Kumar, and the present petitioner were instrumental in kidnapping of informant's daughter for the purpose of marriage.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that as a matter of fact, co-accused, Anand Kumar and the victim got married and after the victim came under the control of her parents, she narrated entirely a different version in her statement, recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Considering the submission that co-accused, Anand Kumar, has granted regular bail, this application is allowed. Let the petitioner, abovenamed, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Patna City, in connection with Khushrupur P.S. Case No.168 of 2015, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present herself before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on her part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, her bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
