Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the complainant is apprehending arrest in a complaint case wherein process has been directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Sections 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of torture for non-fulfilment of the dowry demand.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner admits his marriage with the complainant. Though, it appears from the impugned order that the petitioner was initially ready to keep the complainant but subsequently the petitioner retracted from his undertaking but now the petitioner is ready to keep the complainant as wife with full dignity and honour. A statement to that effect has been made in para 12 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That it is submitted that the petitioner is ready to keep the complainant with all respect and dignity.”

Considering the present stand of the petitioner, let the above named petitioner be released on provisional anticipatory bail for four months in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of twelve weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of ₹10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned SDJM, Gopalganj in connection with Complaint Case No. 951 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
