CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 14-12-2016 Heard Sri Sanay Kumar @ S.K., learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Brajendra Nath Pandey, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor.

Two petitioners, who are father-in-law and mother-in-law of the deceased, have prayed for grant of anticipatory bail in Sakra P.S. Case No. 137 of 2016 registered for offence under Sections 304(B), 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

It was submitted by learned counsel for petitioners that daughter-in-law of petitioners died due to accident. It has been argued that while she was cooking, she received burn injury and died, whereas, Sri Pandey, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor opposing the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail submits that petitioners are F.I.R. named accused with specific accusation. He submits that death has occurred within one year of the marriage and in the F.I.R. itself, there is allegation that repeatedly daughter of the informant was tortured for non-fulfillment of dowry.

Keeping in view the seriousness of the offence, there is no reason to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Dismissed

(Rakesh Kumar, J.)
