CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 17-09-2016

The writ application is dismissed. No interference is warranted with the decision of the Accountant General keeping in mind the principle of law that no government servant can derive any advantage or benefit over and above his entitlement, which is notified.

The discrepancy by some omission committed at the level of the office of the Accountant General allowed the petitioner certain benefits and the same is required to be adjusted. What is required to be adjusted, which the petitioner labels as recovery, in the opinion of the Court, it is nothing but accounting and such accounting and adjustments is required to be made.

Writ application has no merit. It is dismissed.
