3 01-02-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned

Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the State.

This application for grant of anticipatory bail arises out of Warisnagar P.S. Case No. 166 of 2014, disclosing offences under Sections 304B,201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner is the husband of the deceased.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the trial prosecution case at the trial.

Be that as it may, in the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application for bail is rejected.

The petitioner is directed to surrender before the Court below within six weeks and seek regular bail, if so advised. If he does so, his application for regular bail shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by rejection of present application for grant of anticipatory bail.
