CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH

And

HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH)

Date: 09-05-2016

All these appeals arise out of the judgment and order dated 27.08.2010 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 12641/2010 and its analogous cases.

2. We have heard Sri Ray Shivaji Nath, learned Senior Counsel and A.A.G.-III and Sri Sunil Kumar Mandal, learned counsel for the State and Sri Jai Prakash Verma, learned counsel for the contesting respondents who were writ petitioners.

3. The issue before the learned Single Judge was, whether daily wagers-adhoc appointees, who had not been regularized in the services of the Bihar Agricultural Produce Market Board for the respective Market

Committees, would receive the benefit of the provisions of Section 6 of the Bihar Agricultural Produce Markets (Repeal) Act (hereinafter referred to as “Repealing Act”), 2006, and were liable to be considered for absorption upon abolition of the Market Board and the Market Committees. Admittedly, all the writ petitioners were non-regularized employees working in the Board, may be for a considerable period, in that status. The Repealing Act having been brought about, the matter was referred to a Three Men Committee. The Committee/State Government decided that, cases of those employees, who are not regularized, would not be considered for absorption. Accordingly, a large number of employees, who were working on daily wages, may be since very long, filed various writ petitions. Some of them being C.W.J.C. No. 16109/2008 and its analogous cases. When the matter was taken up in those cases by learned Single Judge of this Court, it was referred to a Division Bench and the Division Bench considered the matter and clearly held that, daily wagers could not be considered for regularization in terms of Section 6 of the Repealing Act, as the Repealing Act would only protect persons who were in regular employment. The Division Bench further held that, the decision of the State, not to consider cases of daily wagers, cannot be said to be wrong. The writ petitions were, accordingly, dismissed.

4. The Division Bench judgment of this Court is since reported in 2010 (1) PLJR 763 (Nand Kumar Vs. State of Bihar). Being aggrieved by the decision of the Division Bench, the matter was taken up by the writ petitioners to the Apex Court. The Apex Court affirmed the Division Bench order and dismissed the appeals. The judgment of the Apex Court is reported in (2014) 5 SCC 300 (Nand Kumar Vs. State of Bihar). The Apex Court clearly was of the view that the Repealing Act talked of appointment and appointment would be any appointment by following procedure, and in other words, regular appointment. Daily wagers could not fall within that category. Thus, they affirmed the Division Bench judgment.

5. In view of the aforesaid, we are of the view that the present appeals are to be allowed, not only we are bound by the earlier Division Bench judgment, but those judgments having been affirmed by the Supreme Court, as aforesaid. It is not open for us to take a different view of the matter. All the writ petitioners, admittedly, being unconfirmed non-regularized employees of the Marketing

Board or Market Committee, they cannot take the benefit of Section 6 of the Repealing Act of the State to consider their absorption.

6. In so far as Letters Patent Appeal No. 1157/2009 (Surendra Kumar Singh Vs. The State of Bihar & Ors.) is concerned, it arises from order dated 06.02.2008 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 1120/2007, by which order the writ petition of the writ petitioner for absorption was rejected on the ground that being a daily wager he would not claim right to be considered for absorption under Repealing Act.

7. All these Letters Patent Appeals are allowed, except Letters Patent Appeal No. 1157/2009, which is dismissed.
