CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 04-01-2016

The issues being raised by the present petitioners are not required to be re-adjudicated and valuable judicial time is not required to be wasted on issues and questions which are already answered even by a Division Bench of this Court, arising out of identical set of facts.

The relevant decision is reported in 2015 (2) PLJR 464, which was the case of Suresh Yadav and others vs. State of Bihar and others.

The reasoning and rationale for rejecting the appeal preferred against the decision of a learned single Judge also applies to the present set of facts and the same reasoning shall also apply for rejection of the present writ application.

Writ application is dismissed
