CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 11-05-2016

Learned counsel appearing for the Coalfields categorically informs the Court that in terms of Annexure- R/3 the amount has already been credited into the account of the petitioner on 15.4.2016.

Counsel for the petitioner does not have inputs and there are practical reasons why he cannot receive inputs on the regularity, which is required in matter of instruction to a counsel. There is no reason to disbelieve the statement made at the bar on behalf of the Coal Company.

In view of the above, the Court disposes of the writ application with full liberty to the petitioner that if he finds any discrepancy or he still feels that he can claim something more from the erstwhile company, he always has remedy in law.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
