CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 17-09-2016

Writ court is a wrong forum with regard to the dispute raised by the petitioner. He has already got a succession certificate in his favour. Let the same be utilized or enforced through a civil court of competent jurisdiction. There are certain grey areas which does not satisfy the Court about the bona fide of the petitioner being the rightful claim but that is another issue which is not required to be gone into. The succession certificate also seems to have been managed and obtained from a civil court because the narration of the parties to the said proceeding itself indicates that it was a case of fixed match.

Writ is dismissed.
