CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 30-06-2016 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Akshay Lal Pandit, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor and Sri Vikash Chandra Srivastava, learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of the informant/Opp.Party no.2.

Three petitioners, apprehending their arrest in Maranchi P.S. Case no.11/2016 registered for the offence under Section 307 and other allied Sections of the Indian Penal Code and Section 135 of Electricity Act, have prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were not meter-holders and there is no allegation that the petitioners have committed any theft of electricity. He submits that false accusation was made that the petitioners participated in the occurrence and prevented the raiding party, whereas learned Addl. Public Prosecutor and learned counsel appearing on behalf of Opp.Party no.2 submit that in the F.I.R. itself, there is specific accusation against the petitioners.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties and considering the materials available on record, I do not find any ground to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail. The petition stands dismissed.
