CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 24-06-2016 Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioners being the brothers and sister of the husband of the victim are apprehending arrest in a case initially registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 498A, 285 and 504 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act subsequently Section 304B IPC was also added.

The prosecution case is that seven FIR named accused persons including the petitioners came and started abusing the informant for non-fulfillment of the dowry demand when all the accused persons caught hold of the victim and the husband of the victim poured kerosene oil while the father-in-law lit fire, subsequently the victim succumbed to the injuries.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that specific accusation is against the husband and father-in-law of the victim. The accusation against the petitioner is omnibus and general.

Learned APP after going through the case diary submits that the witnesses have supported the accusation of participation of the petitioners in the alleged crime.

Considering the nature of accusation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Let the learned court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioners if they surrender within a period of six weeks in connection with Chainpur P.S. Case No. 234 of 2015 pending in the court of learned ACJM, Kaimur at Bhabhua.

Accordingly, the application is disposed of.
