CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 05-10-2016

Show cause has been filed by the Jail Superintendent, District Jail, Hajipur in which it has been stated that pursuant to the order of the Court dated 25.10.2011 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 18856 of 2011, compliance of which was alleged to have been violated, the Inspector General, Prison has granted 1st and 2nd ACP to the petitioner. It has further been stated that the cheque of due amount of Rs. 24,857/- was sent to the petitioner through Special Messenger but the same was not accepted by him.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he is ready to accept the cheque on behalf of the petitioner but because the same was not of the entire amount, he did not receive. The Court finds such conduct to be unfortunate. However, as learned counsel for the petitioner is ready to accept the cheque, the same be handed over by learned counsel for the State to learned counsel for the petitioner.

In view of the order of the Court dated 25.10.2011 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 18856 of 2011 having been substantially complied with, the contempt application stands disposed off.

However, if any further payment is required to be made, the petitioner shall be at liberty to represent before the Superintendent, District Jail, Hajipur, within one month from today, along with a copy of this order, who shall look into the matter and pass a reasoned order within four weeks. If any further payments are to be made, the same shall also be made within two months thereafter.
