Hon'ble The Chief JusticeHon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam Koshy*Order on Board*Per Navin Sinha, Chief Justice*29/03/2016

1. The Appellant and the Respondent were married on 26.6.1996. Civil Suit No.79-A/2009 was filed by the Respondent for restitution of conjugal rights. By order dated 4.8.2010, the Family Judge, Raigarh allowed the application against which the present appeal was filed. On 10.4.2013, by consent of the parties, the matter was sent for mediation. The report of the Mediator dated 2.12.2015 signed by the parties is on record evidencing that they are residing as a man and wife for over last two and half years. Pursuant to the same, on 25.2.2016, the parties were directed to be personally present in view of the submission on behalf of the Appellant that he had no further instructions from his client. Today, neither the Appellant nor the Respondent is present. Even Counsel for the Appellant is not present. Only Counsel for the Respondent is present and submits that he also has no further instructions in the matter.

2. It appears that due to matrimonial harmony having been restored evident from the Mediator's Report dated 2.12.2015, the parties have lost interest in the matter.

3. The appeal is therefore disposed as infructuous.
