1. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is working as Subedar (M). His grievance is that despite order passed by this Court in W.P. No.4653/2006 and the order passed by Division Bench on 23/02/2011 in W.A. No.426/2011, against which, the Supreme Court has dismissed S.L.P. (Civil) No. 13274/2013, the benefits made admissible to the similarly placed persons vide order 03/12/2013 issued by Home Department has not been extended to the petitioner. He would submit that the Director General of Police has already issued a communication on 28/09/2013 for extending similar benefits to all the similarly placed persons, but yet necessary orders have not been passed.

2. Learned State counsel would submit that in the event petitioner submits fresh representation before the competent authority, his case shall be scrutinized and if after due verification, if it is found that his case is similar, he shall be entitled to all such benefits available to him in accordance with law.

similar treatment as has been extended to the previous set of petitioners in whose favour order dated 03/12/2013 has been passed, within a period of one month from today, the competent authority shall scrutinize his case and if on verification it is found that the petitioner is identically placed, necessary orders in this regard be passed in accordance with law within a further period of two months.
