Order on Board

27/04/2016

Heard.

The matter has come up for consideration on maintainability of the contempt proceedings directly before this Court, in the matter of alleged contempt of the orders and proceedings of a subordinate Court. Rule 352 of the High Court of Chhattisgarh Rules, 2007 provides as below :

“R.352. In case of Civil Contempt, the Court concerned shall make a reference to the High Court by following, as far as possible, the same procedure laid down for reference in case of Criminal Contempt.”

In view of the above, proper procedure to be followed even in case of civil contempt would be to seek a reference to this Court by the Court concerned.

The contempt petition is therefore not maintainable and is dismissed with liberty to take proceeding in accordance with the provision of Rule 352 of the High Court of Chhattisgarh Rules, 2007.
