Order On Board

Heard.

1. Challenge in this petition to the transfer order dated 18.04.2016, transferring the petitioner from Raigarh district to Kabirdham district on the ground that the transfer has been made in violation of the policy of posting husband and wife at the same place / station as far as possible.
2. It appears from the record that the petitioner has not made any representation and straightway has filed the petition. However, considering that in case the representation is made, but not decided, it is directed for consideration of the representation only, I deem it fit to issue a direction to respondent No.3 to examine the representation for the subject to submitting representation within 10 days from today. If such representation is made, the same should be decided within 15 days. A copy of the order dated 16.06.2016 passed by this Court in WPS No. 2170 of 2016 shall also be placed along with the representation by the petitioner before respondent No.3. For a period of three weeks, the petitioner should not be compelled to proceed on transfer. However, the direction is subject to the condition that the copy of this order be placed by the petitioner before respondent No.3 within 10 days from today.

3. With the aforesaid observation, the petition stands disposed of.
