Counsel for the petitioner wants to withdraw this petition with liberty to file afresh representation before the competent authority. He however submits that the competent authority may be directed to decide the representation so submitted afresh in accordance with law.

Counsel appearing for respondents has no objection so far as withdrawal of the writ petition and filing of fresh representation is concerned. He however submits that it would be for the competent authority whether to consider the said representation or reject the same.

Accordingly, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
