Order On Board

28/07/2016

1. The petitioner has filed this petition aggrieved by the non-acceptance of its application vide order dated 25.2.2016.
2. It is found that the petitioner's application for compounding was not accepted on the ground that the assessment proceedings are not completed.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner brings to the notice of this Court, the order dated 6.6.2016 (Annexure P-7) by which assessment order has now been passed.

3. In that view of the matter there should not be any impediment on consideration of petitioner's application for compounding on its own merits and in accordance with law.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner raises an apprehension that even before deciding the application for compounding, coercive steps may be taken against the petitioner. It goes without saying that the respondents shall proceed in the matter in accordance with law and the occasion to take coercive action will arise only after decision of petitioner's application for compounding.
5. With the aforesaid observations, the petition is finally disposed off.
