Order On Board

23/09/2016

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the transfer order dated 20/01/2016 was stayed by this Court. However, now the respondents have issued a fresh transfer order which is clearly an act of overreaching the orders and proceedings of this Court.

2. The transfer order was earlier stayed in view of the ground raised in the petition that the petitioner could not be transferred during suspension and attachment. However, thereafter, the suspension of the petitioner was revoked on 27/04/2016. The earlier transfer order dated 20/01/2016, which was stayed by this Court has not been given effect to. The respondents have passed fresh order of transfer only after passing order of revocation. Therefore, in these circumstances, no case of willful disobedience of the order of the Court is made out. The contempt petition is accordingly dismissed.
