Order On Board

18/11/2016

Heard.

1. Without pressing the petition on merits it is submitted now that the State Government has taken a policy decision with regard to equivalence of qualification of the one year training course of Paramedics for appointment as MPHWS and a clarificatory order has also been issued by the Health Department on 31.06.2013 in furtherance of Rules for appointment dated 06.07.2013, the only issue which remains for consideration is of retrospectivity for which the petitioner desire to pursue the matter with the State Government.

2. The petition is disposed with that liberty. Any such representation filed is expected to be disposed expeditiously.
3. Nothing in this order shall be deemed or construed as any opinion or observation on merits of the matter.
