Order on Board

15/07/2016

1. At the outset, learned counsel appearing for the applicants would submit that the applicants/defendants be permitted to raise the plea regarding the bar of the suit in their written statement and the trial Court be directed to frame the issue in that regard and further directed to frame the preliminary issue regarding that.
2. Prayer appears to be fair and reasonable.
3. If the defendants takes such a plea in their written statement, then issue would be framed by the trial Court in accordance with law and the trial Court would do well to decide the issue as preliminary issue in accordance with Order 14 Rule 2 (2) sub-rule (a) (b) of the CPC without being prejudiced by the impugned order.
4. With the aforesaid observation, the civil revision stands finally disposed of.
