Order On Board

22/07/2016

Heard.

2. Learned counsel for the parties could not dispute the factual position emerging from the affidavit that though interim order was passed by this Court on 28-01-2016, it could be brought to the notice of the respondent only on 03-02-2016, before which, the respondent No.1 passed the final order on 30-01-2016.
3. In view of the aforesaid admitted position on record, in the opinion of this Court, no contempt can be said to have been committed. Rule is therefore discharged.

4. However, as the final order dated 30-01-2016 has been passed after the interim order dated 28-01-2016, the respondent No.1 shall do well to take all necessary steps by withdrawing the earlier order and thereafter pass fresh corrective order.

5. Accordingly, this petition is finally disposed off.
