Hon'ble Shri Justice Manindra Mohan ShrivastavaOrder On Board*08/07/2016

Heard on admission.

Though, learned State counsel submits that he may be granted time to seek instructions in the matter, I am not inclined to grant time in view of the nature of grievance raised before this Court.

Curiousness enough, despite there being an order of transfer issued on 15.07.2014, the petitioner has not been relieved. Clause 2 of the order says that the officer shall be treated as having been automatically relieved after 15 days and his salary shall not be paid from the present place of posting. It also says that if the order is violated, action would be taken against Controlling authority.

Surprisingly, the order has not been complied with till date.

Be that as it may, if the order stands as on the date, it should be complied with unless the Government, itself, has stayed or withdrawn the order.

In view of clause 2 of the order, the petitioner should be treated as having been relieved and he should be allowed to proceed on transfer.

This order be placed before respondent No.3 for necessary compliance.

With the aforesaid observation, the petition is disposed off.
