Order On Board

22/08/2016

1. The only ground to challenge the transfer order is that while transferring the petitioner, the Government Policy of keeping husband wife together either at the same station or at nearby stations to the extent it is permissible and possible, subject to administrative exigency of service. The petitioner and his wife both are posted at Baramkela. Now, the petitioner has been transferred to Lailunga, which is about 120 km away.
2. The only grievance of the petitioner is that by this transfer order, the petitioner would go to a place which is at the distance from the place of posting of his wife.
3. Considering the aforesaid prayer, Policy to keep husband wife together, transfer may explore the possibility whether the petitioner can be adjusted at the nearby station. This would always be subject to the administrative exigency.
4. The petitioner has already preferred representation to the Collector. Let, the Collector may consider and decide the representation within a period of three weeks.
5. The petition is accordingly disposed off.
