Order On Board

05/08/2016

Heard on admission.

The only ground to challenge the transfer is that the petitioner being handicapped, ought to have been exempted from transfer. This matter requires consideration by the competent authority. However, the petitioner has approached this Court without preferring any representation as provided in clause 6 of the transfer policy.

Let representation be preferred within a period of 10 days and if such representation is made, the same shall be considered and decided by the Chief Executive Officer, Zila Panchayat, Raigarh within two weeks. For a period of three weeks, no coercive steps shall be taken provided no one has joined in the place of the petitioner.

The petition is accordingly disposed off.
