HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPURMCRC No. 2281 of 2016

Roshan Gupta, S/o late Ashok Gupta, aged about 28 years, R/o Behind Santoshi Mandir, Machhi Talab, Gudhiyari, Raipur, Post Office, Raipur, Police Station Gudhiyari, Raipur, Tahsil & District Raipur, present resident of Near Sanjay Pan Shop, Naya Talab, Gudhiyari, Raipur, Post Office Raipur, Police Station Gudhiyari, Raipur, Tahsil and District Raipur (CG).

---- ApplicantVersus

State of Chhattisgarh, through Station House Officer, Police Station Gudhiyari, District Raipur (CG).

---- Non-applicant

For Applicant	:	Shri Shivendu Pandya, Advocate
For Non-applicant	:	Ms. Astha Shukla, Panel Lawyer

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board*09/05/2016*(1) Heard.

(2) This is an application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail to the applicant, who has been arrested in connection with Crime No.75/2016 registered at Police Station Gudhiyari, District Raipur, for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of the Chhattisgarh Excise Act, 1915.

(3) Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that 8.10 bulk liters of illicit liquor was seized by the police from the present applicant.

(4) Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has falsely been implicated in the case, and therefore, the applicant may be released on bail.

(5) On the other hand, learned counsel for the State opposes the bail application.

(6) I have heard the counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

(7) Taking into consideration the condition incorporated in Section 59-A(ii) of the C.G. Excise Act, 1915, and bearing in mind the principles of law laid down in Banti Singh v. State of Chhattisgarh (M.Cr.C. No.6846 of 2014, decided on 05.01.2015), if the facts of present case are examined, it is apparent that only 8.10 bulk liters of liquor has been seized from him which is more than prescribed limit of 5 bulk liters, but looking to the fact that it is first offence of the applicant and he is in custody from 21.03.2016 and case is triable by the Judicial Magistrate First Class and trial is likely to take some more time and further taking into account the nature and gravity of offence and plea raised by the applicant that he has falsely been implicated in case, I am of the opinion that present is the fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.

(8) Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed. It is directed that on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court of his appearance as and when directed, the applicant shall be released on bail, subject to following conditions:

1. That, the applicant shall furnish a specific undertaking that while on bail, he will not commit any excise offence, otherwise bail granted to him shall be liable to be cancelled and shall co-operate the prosecution during trial.
2. That, the accused/applicant shall make himself available for interrogation before the concerned Investigating Officer as and when required and the accused/applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer.
3. That, the accused/applicant shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial.
