Order On Board

13/01/2016

1. Learned counsel for the contemnors would submit that the representations preferred by the petitioners have been decided and thus the contempt has been purged.
2. In view of the above, nothing survives in these contempt petitions for proceedings further in the matter. Accordingly, the contempt petitions are disposed of, however, the petitioners would be at liberty to file a fresh writ petition, if the grievance still subsists.
