2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that present applicant along with other co-accused is said to have attacked on the premises of M/s Parv Bulcon Construction Company operating in village Bhanupratappur, District Kanker, causing damages to the vehicles and other machineries of the said construction company. According to the mines manager's complaint, there were 15 persons, 5 males and the rest females, who had attacked the premises of the company on 12-04-2015. FIR was has been lodged against unknown persons. Consequently, the police personnel have made 42 persons as accused.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant would submit that the applicant has been falsely implicated, charge-sheet has been filed in this case, he is in jail since 23-6-2015 and no further investigation is required. He would further submit that the case of the present applicant is similar to that of other co-accused namely Sunaram Teta, who has been enlarged on bail vide order dated 20-09-2016 passed by this Court in M.Cr.C.No. 5620 of 2016 therefore, the applicant may also be released on bail on the ground of parity.
4. Per contra, learned State counsel opposes the prayer for grant of bail, however, he does not dispute the fact that the case of the applicant is similar to the case of co-accused person who has been granted bail.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have also perused the case diary and the documents.
6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegation leveled against the applicant and considering the fact that charge-sheet has been filed, the applicant is in jail since 23-6-2015 and further considering the fact that similarly placed other co-accused person has been granted bail, I am inclined to release the applicant on bail.
7. Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed and it is directed that the applicant shall be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court for his appearance as and when directed.
