CORAM : RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.
DATED : 4th FEBRUARY, 2016

ORAL ORDER :

1. Ms. Madhubala B. Gangwal, Advocate holding for Mr. Barlinge, Advocate for petitioner submits that despite best efforts, the petitioner is neither contacting him nor is he forwarding any instructions to him about the contention of the Respondent No.4 that the petitioner has taken voluntary retirement and the Respondent No.4 is working in place of the petitioner for the last four years.

2. Mr. Jadhavar, learned Counsel for the Respondent No.4 reiterates, as was stated earlier on 28.01.2016, that the petitioner has taken voluntary retirement and the Respondent No.4 is now working in place of the petitioner for the last four years.

3. According to the said statement made above, this petition has become infructuous and is therefore disposed of. Pending civil application would not survive and same is also disposed of.

4. It is made clear that this petition has been disposed of on the statement made by the Respondent No.4.
