(CORAM : RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.)

DATE : 18/02/2016

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. All the above matters have been Admitted by this Court.
2. The common issue involved in all these matters is with regard to the claim of the daily wage employees u/s 33(C)(2) of the I.D.Act, 1947 in connection with the award dated 31/12/1984 delivered by the Industrial Tribunal in Ref.(IT) No.48/1981 and which fell for the consideration of the Apex Court in the matter of the same employer herein viz. Mahatma Phule Agricultural University and others Vs. Nasik Jillha Sheti Kamgar Union and others, 2001(III) CLR 4.
3. On identical set of facts, this Court, in a connected Writ petition No.3182/2012 decided on 17/06/2015, in the matter of Gangadhar Shankar Dale and 11 others Vs. Mahatma Phule Krishi Vidyapeeth, has remanded the proceedings to the Labour Court since it was the contention of the University that every applicant before the Labour Court was not cross examined by the Agricultural University.

4. The first two petitions have been filed by the Agricultural University for challenging the judgment of the Labour Court Dhule dated 28/04/2006 delivered in Appl.(IDA) No.4/2003 and No.5/2003. By the said judgment, the claim of the respondents/employees was allowed by the Labour Court.

5. In the remaining group of petitions herein, the employees have challenged the judgment of the Labour Court dated 29/10/2010 and similar judgments in Application (IDA) No.44/2002 and similar group of applications by which the claims of the employees u/s 33(C)(2) have been rejected.

6. Since a common issue is involved and since the employer is the same in all these matters, coupled with the fact that all the employees are similarly situated, I have taken up all these matters together for adjudication. For the sake of clarity, the Mahatma Phule

Agricultural University shall be referred to as the “University” and all the daily wage workers involved in these matters would be referred to as the “employees”.

7. Mr Shahane and Mr.A.S.Shelke, learned Advocates for the University have assailed the judgment dated 28/04/2006 delivered by the Labour Court, Dhule by which the claims of the employees involved have been allowed. They oppose all the remaining writ petitions filed by the employees on the ground that the rejection of their 33(C)(2) applications by the Labour Court is perfectly legal and calls for no interference.

8 I have heard the learned Advocates for the respective sides at length.

9. Once this Court has taken a view in identical matters involving the same University by its judgment dated 17/06/2015, a different view is not required to be taken unless the facts are different. However, Mr.Shahane has relied upon reported judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and of this Court on the basis of which he has contended that reemployed retrenched workmen u/s 25(H) of the I.D.Act, would not entitle them for restoration on the same terms and conditions of employment as were applicable on the date of their retrenchment. It is only in this context that I have considered these submissions and have heard the learned Advocates for the employees as well.

10. In order to assess the vehement submissions of Mr.Shahane and Mr.A.S.Shelke, the earlier history in relation to the award dated 31/12/1984 in Reference (IDA) No.48/1981 needs to be considered.

11. About 2000 daily wagers had raised an Industrial Dispute with regard to their terms and conditions of employment in 1980. The said dispute was referred to the Industrial Tribunal and was registered as Ref.(IT) No.48/1981. By the judgment and award dated 31/12/1984, the service conditions applicable to the claimants were settled. All the service conditions are not relevant while deciding these petitions. The only relevant condition is that by the award, the daily wagers were held to be entitled for wages @ 1/30 of the wages being paid to the permanent employees performing the same nature of duties.

12. Thereafter, 127 daily wagers who were employed subsequently and were not members of the Union in so far as Ref.(IT) No.48/1981 was concerned, raised an Industrial Dispute claiming the benefits of the award dated 31/12/1984 on the principle of “equal wages-equal work” and “parity in wages”. The said dispute was referred to the Industrial Tribunal and registered as Ref.(IT) No.27/1984. By award dated 01/04/1985, the Reference was allowed and these 127 daily wagers were held entitled to the same scale of wages as was paid to the daily wagers covered by the award dated 31/12/1984.

13. It is noteworthy that the award dated 31/12/1984 was challenged by the University upto the level of the High Court and the challenge was turned down. The subsequent award dated 01/04/1985 was carried upto the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of Mahatma Phule Agricultural University and others Vs. Nasik Zilla Sheti Kamgar Union (supra).

14. For better appreciation of the submissions of Mr.Shahane and Mr.A.S.Shelke, the following conclusions of the learned Apex Court in the Mahatma Phule judgment (supra) become relevant :-

“As set out hereinabove, the Award was in respect of approximately 2,000 workmen. As regards the other remaining workmen (except for 127 workmen covered by the Award dated 1st April, 1985) who are not covered by the Award the principles of equal pay for equal work would apply. Neither Mr.Bobde nor Mr.Ashwini Kumar could dispute that as between daily wagers the principles of equal pay for equal work would apply. Therefore, the rest of the workers would also become entitled to payments and benefits as given under the Award dated 20th February, 1985 in (IT) No.48 of 1981. there is no justification in the Universities in not making payments and giving those benefits to the remaining workers on the same basis. We, therefore, direct that the benefits of the Award dated 20th February, 1985 in (IT) No.48 of 1981 be given even to the workmen who were not covered by the said Award (except the : 127 workmen covered by Award dt. 1st April 1985 in (IT) No.27 of 1984. Even in respect of these workmen Universities shall forthwith work out the amounts payable and pay the same.”

15. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke have relied upon the following judgments of this Court as well as the Hon'ble Supreme Court :-

1. Indian Hume Pipe Company Ltd., Vs. Bhimarao Baliram Gajbhiya,
2. Delta Wires (Private) Ltd., Vs. General Labour Union (Red.Flag and another, [1995 – II L.L.N. 962],
3. Mukund Nana Edke Vs. Dainik Gavkari and another, [2009(12) FLR 394],
4. Central Inland Water Transport Corporation Ltd., Vs. Workmen and another, [1974(29) FLR 57],

16. The common view in the ratio laid down in the above cited judgments is that Section 25-H of the I.D.Act speaks of reemployment and not reinstatement. Therefore, the reemployed workmen will not be entitled to claim the same terms and conditions of employment as were applicable to them prior to their retrenchment. It is concluded that by virtue of reemployment, earlier terms and conditions of employment shall not be restored.

17. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke submit that the above cited judgments were not brought to the notice of this Court when the judgment dated 17/06/2015 was delivered in WP No.3182/2012. They have put forth these submissions in the light of the conclusion of this Court in paragraph No.21 and 22 of the said judgment which reads as under :-

“21. In so far as the issue of pending cases against termination filed by the daily wagers is concerned, the University has re-deployed those terminated daily wagers, whose cases are pending before the competent Court. As such, they are working as temporary employees on daily wages. Even if they work for a single day, the principle / conclusion set out by the Apex Court as reproduced above, would apply to them and they would be entitled for wages @ 1/30th of the basic wages and dearness allowance payable to regular employees even for that single day worked.

22. In the light of the above, the impugned judgment and order dated 30/12/2011, delivered by the Labour Court in Application (IDA) No.4 of 2013 is quashed and set aside. The matter is remitted to the Labour Court for enabling the University to cross-examine those complaints before the Court. The issue of applicability of the award to the claimants has been decided in this judgment and, therefore, is not open to the Labour Court for adjudication.”

18. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke, therefore, submit that this Court has concluded that the daily wagers would be entitled for 1/30th of the basic wages and dearness allowance payable to regular employees. They contend that this Court has treated the daily wagers who have been reemployed u/s 25-H as if they have been reinstated in service.

19. Section 25-H of the I.D.Act, 1947 reads as under :-

“25(H) Re-employment of retrenched workmen.- Where any workmen are retrenched, and the employer proposes to take into his employment any persons, he shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, give an opportunity ² to the retrenched workmen who are citizens of India to offer themselves for re- employment and such retrenched workman] who offer themselves for re-employment shall have preference over other persons.”

20. The University, in April 2001, had retrenched 2292 employees who were daily wagers on the ground that the lands being cultivated by the University were being returned to the State. Within 3 (three) months in July 2001, hundreds of the retrenched daily wagers were reemployed at various locations of the University. These workers have alleged foul play on the ground that they were retrenched in April 2001 and reemployed in July 2001 which was only a device of the University to cause a break in their service.

21. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke submit that whether it was a bonafide retrenchment or not is a matter which is subjudice and would be considered by the Court before which such matters are pending. Prior to delivering of a judgment in those cases, the contention that the retrenchment was mischievous or vexatious, cannot be advanced.

22. The issue before this Court is as to whether by virtue of the judgments cited by Mr.Shahane, the award dated 31/12/1984 would be made applicable to every daily wager or not. It cannot be ignored that though the award dated 31/12/1984 covers the claim of the daily wagers, the reproduced portion of the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Mahatma Phule (supra) would be the guiding principle in my view. The University had challenged the award dated 01/04/1985 upto the Apex Court on the ground that the award dated 31/12/1984 should be restricted only to those daily wagers concerned with Ref.(IT) No.48/1981. The learned Apex Court has rejected the said contention by invoking the principle of “equal pay for equal work” and “parity in wages” as can be seen from the reproduced portion in paragraph No.14 hereinabove.

23. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke have vehemently contended that if a fresh daily wager is engaged, he would be entitled for the benefit of the award dated 31/12/1984 (wrongly typed as 20/02/1985 in the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the judgment delivered in Mahatma Phule Agricultural University and others (supra). However, this would not apply to a reemployed retrenched workman since he would stand on a different footing.

24. I could appreciate the submissions of Mr.Shahane in the light of the judgments cited to the extent of the terms and conditions of employment existing as on date of a retrenchment of an employee and that the same would not be applicable if he is reemployed. However, once the award is delivered settling the rates of wages of daily wagers, as has been done by the award dated 31/12/1984 in Ref.(IT)

No.48/1981 and the learned Apex Court has invoked the principle of “equal wages for equal work” in identical set of facts and has, therefore, made the same rates of wages applicable to those daily wagers who were not part of Ref.(IT) No.48/1981, the submissions of Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke are rendered fallacious.

25. The learned Apex Court in the case of Punjab National Bank and Others Vs. Manjeet Singh and another [2006(8) SCC 647] has dealt with the issue of the applicability of an award u/s 18(3)(d) of the I.D.Act, 1947. Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke contend that the ratio laid down in the said judgment would not be applicable to the instant case as this case deals with the rights of reemployed retrenched workmen.

26. Section 18(3) of The I.D.Act, 1947 reads as under :-

18. Persons on whom settlements and awards are binding -

18(3) A settlement arrived at in the course of conciliation proceedings under this Act or an arbitration award in a case where a notification has been issued under sub- section (3A) of section 10A] or ⁶ an award ⁷ of a Labour Court, Tribunal or National Tribunal] which has become enforceable] shall be binding on--

- (a) all parties to the industrial dispute;*
- (b) all other parties summoned to appear in the proceedings as parties to the dispute, unless the Board, ⁵ arbitrator,] ⁸ Labour Court, Tribunal or National Tribunal], as the case may be, records the opinion that they were so summoned without proper cause;*
- (c) where a party referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) is an employer, his heirs, successors or assigns in respect of the establishment to which the dispute relates;*
- (d) where a party referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) is composed of workmen, all persons who were employed in the establishment or part of the establishment, as the case may be, to which the dispute relates on the date of the dispute and all persons who subsequently become employed in that establishment or part thereof.*

27. In paragraph Nos.16 and 17 of the Punjab National Bank judgment (supra), the Hon'ble Apex Court has concluded that such workmen, who are not parties to the award and are subsequently employed in the Establishment would also be covered by the award made by the Industrial Tribunal. In the instant case, the learned Apex Court has already put to rest the challenge of the University in the Mahatma Phule judgment (supra) and has concluded that all the daily wagers working with the University would be covered by the award dated 31/12/1984.

28. Issue therefore is as to whether the retrenched workmen, who are reemployed can be placed even lower than the daily wagers who were working in the Establishment or are subsequently inducted as fresh candidates. I am in respectful agreement with the view taken by the learned Apex Court and this Court in the judgments cited by Mr.Shahane. However, it cannot be ignored that the University is attempting to create a new class of reemployed retrenched workmen, who are sought to be placed even lower than the daily wagers who were covered by the award dated 31/12/1984 and those daily wagers, who were granted the benefits of the said Award by the learned Apex Court in the Mahatma Phule judgment (supra).

29. It is at this stage that the principle of parity amongst identically placed daily wagers and the principle of 'equal wagers for equal work' would have its application. In the reproduced portion from the judgment of the learned Apex Court in the Mahatma Phule case (supra) would clearly indicate the view of the Court that there needs to be parity in wages between daily wagers and the principle of equal pay for equal work would apply.

30. In the light of the above, I find no reason to accept the contention of Mr.Shahane and Mr.Shelke that the judgment dated 17/06/2015 delivered by this Court in WP No.3182/2012 needs to be recalled to the extent of the conclusions drawn in paragraph Nos. 21 and 22 reproduced above.

31. Turning to the first two petitions filed by the University for challenging the judgment of the Labour Court dated 28/04/2006 allowing the claims of the employees in the light of the award dated 31/12/1984 is concerned, I find that the Labour Court has considered the claim of the employees only for the period for which they have worked after being reemployed. Since I have concluded that a category of daily wagers even below the category of other daily wagers benefited by the Award dated 31/12/1984 cannot be carved out, I do not find that the Labour Court has committed any error in allowing the claims of the employees to that extent. No interference is, therefore, called for in the impugned judgments of the Labour Court dated 28/04/2006.

32. These two petitions are therefore dismissed. Rule is discharged.

33. In so far as the other petitions are concerned, which stand on identical set of facts as in the case of Gangadhar Shankar Dale and 11 others Vs. Mahatma Phule Krishi Vidyapeeth (supra) (in WP No.3182/2012), it cannot be ignored that the University had desired to cross examine each of the employees.

34. Notwithstanding the above, though the Labour Court has taken the pains to write a lengthy judgment running into 28 pages, it has declined to adjudicate upon the claim of the employees only for the reason that the dispute as regards whether there exist employer-employee relationship between the employees and the University cannot be gone into by the Labour Court. Another conclusion drawn is that the applications u/s 33(C)(2) are premature and the Labour Court has no jurisdiction to entertain and adjudicate upon the points of dispute involved in the application under consideration. The Labour Court has further observed that the rights of the parties cannot be adjudicated upon u/s 33(C)(2) of the I.D. Act, 1947 for want of jurisdiction. As the question of maintainability of the applications is involved, the said applications are premature.

35. I cannot concur with the conclusions of the Labour Court as are found in paragraph No.16 of the impugned judgments referred to above. The Labour Court has lost sight of the fact that the claim of the employees was with regard to payment of wages @ 1/30th of the wages paid to regular employees. According to the employees, the employer has paid lesser wages and therefore the dues need to be recovered from the employer. As this Court has settled the issue of the applicability of the award dated 31/12/1984 in the light of the view taken by the learned Apex Court in the case of Mahatma Phule Agricultural University (supra), the applications u/s 33(C)(2) of the I.D. Act filed by the employees deserve to be remitted back to the Labour Court for a decision afresh on their merits.

36. Since in the instant cases, the Labour Court has declined to exercise its jurisdiction erroneously and the matters are being remitted back on the said count, I am not imposing costs on the University as was done in the case of Gangadhar Shankar Dale (supra).

37. In the light of the above, all petitions filed by the employees are partly allowed and all the impugned judgments are quashed and set aside. All these applications u/s 33(C)(2) filed by these employees are remitted back to the Labour Court at Ahmednagar. The litigating sides shall appear before the Labour Court on 07/03/2016. Formal notices need not be issued by the Labour Court.

38. Both the litigating sides are at liberty to lead additional oral and documentary evidence. The Labour Court shall not discard the evidence recorded earlier and shall proceed to decide the applications on their own merits. If the University finds that the evidence adduced by the employees is similar or identical, they may choose to cross examine few of the applicants beneficiaries and / or a responsible office bearer of the Union, as it may deem fit.

39. The Labour Court shall endeavour to decide these applications on or before 28/02/2017.

40. Rule is made partly absolute in the above terms.
