CORAM : S.S. SHINDE AND SANGITRAO S. PATIL, JJ.
DATE : SEPTEMBER 15, 2016

PER COURT :

Heard the learned Counsel for the applicant/appellant and the learned APP for the respondent.

2. Perused the notes of evidence. Prima facie, it appears that the findings recorded by trial Court are in consonance with the evidence on record. We do not propose to elaborate the evidence since the appeal filed by the applicant is pending. This application for bail stands rejected.

3. Registry to send back the Record and Proceedings to the trial Court. Upon receiving the Record and Proceedings, the trial Court shall prepare Paper Book and send it back with the original Record and Proceedings to this Court, as expeditiously as possible, however, within a period of three months from today.

4. Upon receipt of the Paper Book and the original Record and Proceedings by the Registry of this Court, liberty to mention for hearing of the appeal granted.
