CORAM : V. K. JADHAV, J.
DATED : 4th MARCH, 2016

PER COURT:-

1. In all these civil applications, learned counsel for the applicants, on instructions, submits that without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the applicants/petitioners raised in the present civil applications as well as writ petitions in respect of recovery certificates, the applicants/petitioners are ready to pay an amount of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) in each matter, to respondent No.4-Bank, within a period of four weeks from today.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.4-Bank submits that if the applicants deposit the amount of Rs.50,000/- each, in the bank, though without prejudice to the contentions raised by them in the civil applications/petitions, the respondent-Bank would not proceed with the auction proceeding up to December, 2016.

3. The counsel for both the sides agree that in case the applicants/petitioners fail to deposit the said amount within four weeks from today, as agreed, in that event, the respondent-Bank would proceed with the auction process in accordance with law.

4. In view of the above directions and observations, civil applications are disposed of.

5. Place the writ petitions for hearing as to admission on 1.4.2016.
