BENCH AT AURANGABAD

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO. 297 OF 2016

Govind s/o. Kondiba Ghansavant .. Petitioner
Versus
The State of Maharashtra & Ors. .. Respondents

Mr. Bharti B. Gunjal, Advocate (appointed) for the petitioner.
Mr. K.S. Patil, A.P.P. for respondent/State.

CORAM : A.V.NIRGUDE &
INDIRA K. JAIN, JJ.
DATED : 18.03.2016

P.C. :-

1. Heard. Equally efficacious remedy is available to the petitioner for challenging the impugned order. In our view Rule-2 of the Prisons (Bombay Furlough & Parole) Rules, 1959, after amendment, gives ample latitude to a convict for challenging all types of orders refusing furlough leave, by filing an appeal. The impugned order is appellable under Rule-2 of the said Rules.

2. The criminal writ petition stands disposed of.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner who is appointed as amicus curiae be paid Rs.1500/- (Rupees One Thousand Five Hundred) as legal fee.
