Mr. Amol P. Ghule Patil, Advocate for the applicant
.....

[CORAM : SUNIL P. DESHMUKH, J.]

DATE : 15th SEPTEMBER, 2016

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. None for the respondent despite service of notice.
2. Rule. Rule made returnable forthwith and heard finally with consent of learned advocate for the applicant.
3. Learned advocate for the applicant points out that proceedings initiated at the instance of applicant-wife against respondent-husband are pending at Aurangabad, wherein the respondent has put in his appearance and from his response to the same, it could be realised that he had initiated certain proceedings in the court of Civil Judge, Senior Division at Khed-Rajgurunagar in Pune district. No notice, as yet, has been served in respect of those proceedings on the present applicant. However, having regard to that reference of the same has been made in the response to the proceedings which are pending at Aurangabad at the instance of the applicant, this application is being moved seeking transfer of proceedings initiated by respondent at Khed-Rajgurunagar.

4. It is contended that distance between Aurangabad and Khed - Rajgurunagar is about 260 km. The applicant has no source of income worth the name and already the respondent - husband has been attending to proceedings at Aurangabad. As such, it is requested that the proceedings which have been filed by the respondent at Khed-Rajgurunagar be transferred to Aurangabad.

5. There does not appear to be any resistance to the contents of the application and contentions raised on behalf of the applicant and non appearance of the respondent, to a large extent depicts tacit consent to the reliefs claimed under the miscellaneous civil application.

6. In view of aforesaid, the Miscellaneous Civil Application stands allowed. Proceedings bearing Hindu Marriage Petition No.4 of 2016 pending in the court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Khed-Rajgurunagar, District - Pune be transferred to a court at Aurangabad. Rule is made absolute in aforesaid terms. Miscellaneous Civil Application stands disposed of.
