3. In my opinion, this Court distinctly remembers that all these aspects were duly gone into and thereafter only, the applicant had withdrawn earlier application.

4. In view of above, there is no subsequent development to re-consider the same issue.

6. The vehicle/explosive substances are already attached and the co-accused are also arrested. The statement of the applicant is accepted as an undertaking, that he shall surrender on 18th August, 2016. I, therefore, pass following order :-

Till then, in the event of arrest of the applicant, in connection with C.R. No.118 of 2016, registered with Manwat police station, Tq. Manwat, District Parbhani, for offences punishable under sections 4 and 5 of the Explosive Substances Act, 1908, he be released on ad interim bail, on furnishing P.R. Bond of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount.
