

drp

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAY
BENCH AT AURANGABAD

MISCELLANEOUS CIVIL APPLICATION NO.150 OF 2016

Anjali Parag Hase

APPLICANT

Age – 26 years, Occ – Nil

R/o C/o Radhakisan Narayan Choudhary,

At Post Village Indori (Near Indori Phata)

Taluka – Akole, District – Ahmednagar

VERSUS

Parag Bhanudas Hase

RESPONDENT

Age – 30 years, Occ – Service,

R/o Head of Printing Technology Department,

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University,

Aurangabad, District – Aurangabad

.....

Mrs. Suvarna M. Zaware, Advocate for the applicant

Mr. Parag B. Hase, respondent – Party-in-person

.....

[CORAM : SUNIL P. DESHMUKH, J.]

DATE : 24th AUGUST, 2016

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. Rule. Rule made returnable forthwith and heard finally with consent.
2. The respondent appears in person. Learned advocate for the applicant states that her client is present in the court and identifies the respondent.

3. The respondent – party-in-person states that he has no particular objection if the Miscellaneous Civil Application is allowed. He, however, expects expeditious disposal of proceedings filed between the parties.

4. In view of aforesaid, Miscellaneous Civil Application stands allowed in terms of prayer clause “B” and is disposed of. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Having regard to the request, the court at Sangamner may proceed with the proceedings between the parties inter se as expeditiously as possible.

[SUNIL P. DESHMUKH, J.]