CORAM : A.V. NIRGUDE AND V.K. JADHAV, JJ.

DATE : 24th June 2016

PER COURT

1. Applicant is accused in Crime No.135 of 2015 of Tophkhana Police Station, Ahmednagar, registered for offences punishable under Sections 354 (D), 506 read with Sec.34 of the Indian Penal Code.
2. We heard even the complainant in presence of her Advocate. We realised that the complaint deserves to be quashed mainly for bringing peace between the parties. Earlier, the complainant was married to brother-in-law of the applicant, but the marriage failed and divorce took place. The complainant is an educated person and has ample opportunity to start her life afresh. She would be able to get a good job on the basis of her education and we advised her not to pursue the case and forget about the past. She agreed that she would not continue with this case. Since the parties are related to each other, we think it proper to quash the proceedings utilising our powers under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure.

3. Accordingly, Criminal Application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (C).
