By way of filing the Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner seeks quashment of the order passed by Respondent No.2 - University dated 26.06.2015 rejecting the claim of the petitioner for appointment on compassionate ground.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the services of the husband of the petitioner were terminated only on the ground that he did not submit the caste validity certificate. It is submitted that the Petition, challenging the notice issued by authorities asking explanation why his services should not be terminated, was filed, however, during the pendency of the said Petition, the services of the husband of the petitioner came to be terminated. Therefore, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the Petition deserves consideration.

3. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner at length. However, he has not brought to our notice any provision/scheme, which provides for appointment on compassionate ground to the heirs of employee, whose services have been terminated by the Respondent – University.

4. In that view of the matter, we are unable to persuade ourself to grant any relief in favour of the petitioner. Hence the Petition stands rejected.
