3. Perusal of the FIR indicates that since the informant was assured employment by one Sushil Waghmare, who is the main accused, an amount of Rs.9,00,000/- was paid to him. On such employment not being secured, the aforesaid amount was sought to be returned by the main accused by issuing two cheques. However, both the cheques bounced. On that basis, report came to be lodged. Insofar as present applicant is concerned, it was stated by the present applicant to the informant that her husband was an Officer in the Mantralaya and the amount in question be paid to Sushil Waghmare.

4. After hearing learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor and after perusing the order dated 27/9/2016 passed in Criminal Application No.5071 of 2016, I find that case of present applicant is similar to the case of the applicant therein. This Court has observed that there was no averment of payment of any amount to the applicant therein and hence allowed the said application. The case of the present applicant being similar, I am inclined to allow the present Application.

Hence, the following order:-
