CORAM : SUNIL P. DESHMUKH, J.
10TH FEBRUARY, 2016

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. Rule. Rule made returnable forthwith. Heard learned counsel for applicant finally. Despite service, no appearance is caused on behalf of the respondent.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant points out that after the marriage, from the wedlock, a daughter has been born who is one and half year old. It is further being stated that respondent has filed a petition for restitution of conjugal rights bearing No. A 149/2015 in the Family Court at Nanded without any cause of action. He submits that it is inconvenient and not possible for the applicant to attend to said proceedings as she is not in a position to afford travel to Nanded, particularly, because she is residing and taking education at Aurangabad.

3. All the contentions of the applicant go uncontroverted in the absence of other side. It further reflects that other side would not mind transfer of petition filed in Nanded Court to the Court at Aurangabad.

4. In the circumstances, miscellaneous civil application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (2) and disposed of.

5. Rule made absolute accordingly.
