CORAM : A. V. NIRGUDE &

DATE : 09th March, 2016.

P.C.:

. This is a matrimonial dispute. No doubt Respondent No.2 – Complainant implicated some persons, who could not have been made accused in this case. But she has serious grievance against her husband and her immediate in-laws. She also alleged that gift articles given to her are now retained by her in-laws and husband. Respondent No.2 through her Advocate also indicated that she is ready to sit and talk about amicable settlement. The case therefore, deserves to be sent for mediation.

2 Respondent No.2 and her husband shall appear before the Coordinator, District Mediation, Monitoring Committee, Jalgaon.

3 In the meantime, the Police shall not file charge-sheet for a period of two months from today.

4 The Applicants are permitted to file appropriate application, if required, after two months.

5 Both the criminal applications stand disposed of.
