CORAM : T.V.NALAWADE, J.

DATE : 24th JUNE, 2016

ORAL ORDER :-

. All the applications are filed for condonation of delay. In the first matter, condonation of delay of 2700 days is caused in filing Civil Revision Application. In the second matter, condonation of delay of 2533 days is caused in filing Civil Revision Application. In the third matter, condonation of delay of 1739 days is caused in filing Civil Revision Application. In the fourth matter, condonation of delay of 2700 days is caused in filing Civil Revision Application. Heard both sides.

2. The original claimants from the Reference wants to challenge the decision given by the Land Reference Court. The References are rejected as no evidence is given. The counsel is taking blame to himself and there was no record to substantiate the claim, hence the matters were dismissed.

3. In view of the decision given by this Court, the Revisions are tenable.

4. In view of the aforesaid circumstances, the applications are allowed subject to the condition that original claimants will not be claiming interest in respect of the aforesaid period if at the end they succeed in getting enhanced compensation.
