

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO. 2019 OF 2008

Mahad Co-op. Urban Bank Ltd. ... Petitioner

v/s

Shri Rajendra Damodar Pawar & ors. ... Respondents

Mr.Kishor Patil for the petitioner.

None present for the respondents.

Coram: N.M. Jamdar, J.

Dated: 6 October 2016

P.C.:

On 2 September 2016, the following order was passed :

'P.C. :

Learned counsel for the Petitioner seeks time to take instructions, whether the bank has been able to recover any amount from the Respondent pursuant to the order passed by the Cooperative Court in the year 2007. It is noted that the Respondents have not remained present throughout the proceedings. As regards Respondent Nos.2 and 3 are concerned, the notice has been returned with the remark "not found". Learned advocate for the Petitioner, therefore, seeks time to consider whether it is practicably possible to recover the amount from the Respondent and whether the petition can be pursued further on merits. S.O. to 29 September, 2016 for directions, on final hearing board.'

2 Learned counsel for the Petitioner states that, so far as no written instructions have been received. As noted above in the order dated 2 September 2016, the issues raised in this writ petition seem to have rendered academic with no practical consequence.

3 In the circumstances, the writ petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.
