P.C.:

Various orders have been passed in this second appeal adjourning the second appeal to enable the learned counsel for the Appellants to take instructions in view of the affidavits which have been directly filed by the Appellants in this Court stating that they have settled the dispute. Learned counsel for the Appellants states that the letter written by him has been refused by the Appellants. Learned counsel for the Appellants places affidavit of service on record. It is clear that the Appellants have resolved their dispute. Therefore the appeal need not be kept pending.

2 The second appeal is disposed of accordingly, along with the civil application.
