. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

3. If the grievance of the Petitioner is that certified copies of court record are not been made available, that can be redressed by issuing suitable direction to the Registry. Accordingly, the Petitioner will make an application for certified copies of the documents, details of which the Petitioner has already placed on record as necessary to be filed in the pending proceedings, to the City Civil Court within one week from today. Once such an application is filed, the Registry will issue certified copies to the Petitioner within two weeks from the receipt of the application. In the circumstances, no further orders are required to be passed in this Writ Petition which is disposed of. The Registry to communicate the order to the City Civil Court forthwith. The order is passed in view of the practical difficulty stated to be faced by the Petitioner and is not a reflection on the merits of the rival contentions.
