CORAM : A.S.GADKARI, J.

DATE : 23rd February, 2016

P.C.

By a detailed order dated 8.6.2015 the applicant was granted interim relief. The learned APP. on instructions submitted that the applicant has attended the Investigating Officer on the stipulated dates and has cooperated in the process of investigation. She further submitted that duplicate key of the seized car is still not handed over by the applicant to the Investigating Officer. The custodial interrogation of the applicant is being sought only on the said ground. In my view, the custodial interrogation of the applicant is not necessary for further investigation. In the circumstances, the interim relief granted by order dated 8.6.2015 is hereby confirmed, however, the applicant is directed to attend the Investigating officer as and when called for till the filing of the charge sheet. It is needless to mention that before calling the applicant, the Investigating Officer shall issue a notice to the applicant under Section 160 of the Cr. P. C.

2) Application is allowed in the aforesaid terms.
