DATE : JUNE 15, 2016

P.C.:

1 Learned Counsel for the Petitioners upon instructions seeks liberty to withdraw the Petitions. Liberty as prayed for is granted in the interest of justice. Needless to mention that the interim relief granted vide order dated 21st March, 2016 stands vacated. The Petitioners would be at liberty to file an application seeking discharge. The learned Magistrate shall decide the discharge application on its own merits without being influenced by the observations of the Revisional Court or the fact that the petition has been withdrawn before this Court. It is made clear that all contentions are kept open and the Petitions have not been decided on merits. The Petitioners are granted six weeks' time to file application for discharge. Time spent in this Court shall be taken into consideration if the Magistrate is of the opinion that there is a delay in filing discharge application. The Writ Petitions stand dismissed as withdrawn and disposed of accordingly.
