IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

ANTICIPATORY BAIL APPLICATION NO.1300 OF 2016

Snehalata Devashish Chakravarti	 Applicant
V/s.
The State of Maharashtra	 Respondent

Mr. Jayesh Wani, for the Applicant.
Mr. Y. M. Nakhwa, APP for the Respondent State.

CORAM : A. M. BADAR, J.

DATE : 2nd AUGUST, 2016.

P.C. :

1. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant and the learned APP.
2. The averments in the F.I.R. lodged by Jagruti Manakant, Head Mistress, Saraswati Bhavan English School, are to the effect that the applicant for securing admission of her daughter Kum Janvi in 9th Std., has submitted forged School Leaving Certificate shown to have been issued Vedant English Medium School. It is averred in the F.I.R. that the daughter of the applicant had not even passed 9th Std. Examination, but in order to secure admission in 10th Std., forged documents are submitted.
3. It is argued that the applicant is falsely implicated in the crime in question as the applicant as well as the informant are members of Maharashtra English Trustees Association, and there is dispute amongst both of them.

4. It is seen that the learned Additional Sessions Judge has scrutinized the papers of investigation and found that the applicant had submitted forged and fabricated documents in order to enable her daughter to secure admission in next higher class. The daughter of the applicant has not even passed the 9th Standard examination but forged documents of her passing the 9th standard examination are submitted for securing admission to the next higher class. The F.I.R. is filed after due verification. In order to properly investigate the offence, custodial interrogation of the applicant is warranted. No case for ad-interim anticipatory bail is made out. The prayer so made is rejected. Consequently the application for anticipatory bail is rejected.
