CORAM : N.M.Jamdar, J.
Friday, 30 September 2016.

P.C. :

On 19 October 2013, notice was issued and ad-interim relief was granted. Registry has endorsed that the Respondent is served. None appears for the Respondent inspite of service. The learned counsel for the Petitioner states that the Petitioner is also not contacting or responding to his queries and he has no instructions. By the impugned order, leave to defend has been granted on a condition of deposit of bank guarantee. Dispute between the parties, which is a commercial dispute may have been settled, otherwise there is no reason for the parties not to appear and proceed with the matter. In the circumstances, Writ Petition is disposed of for non-prosecution.
